

Want to attend your first ALA Conference? Apply today for a Penguin Young Readers Group Award!

These awards, made possible by an annual gift from the Penguin Young Readers Group, are administered by a committee of ALSC. They enable up to four children's librarians to attend the ALA Annual Conference in Anaheim, CA, June 26-July 2, 2008. Four librarians working directly with children in an elementary, middle school, or public library setting will each receive $600.

Requirements for application are:

- ALSC membership (applicant must be a member by the application deadline)
- One to ten years experience as a children's librarian
- No previous attendance at an annual ALA Conference

The deadline for applications is Monday, December 3, 2007.

For more information and an application for the Penguin Young Readers Group Award, contact Alison O'Reilly at 512-462-1452 or alison.oreilly@ci.austin.tx.us or visit <http://www.ala.org/alsc>. Click on Awards & Scholarships, then Professional Awards, then Penguin Young Readers Group Award.